About COCA

COCA (Center of Creative Arts) uses the power of the arts and education to build a vibrant St. Louis that is creative, connected, and inclusive. Our mission is to enrich lives and build community through the arts. With a commitment to equity and access, COCA serves as a regional hub for learning in and through the arts for all ages from all backgrounds. One of the most diverse cultural institutions in St. Louis, COCA serves more than 65,000 students, audience members, artists, and families from more than 250 zip codes every year. The fourth largest multi-disciplinary arts organization in the country, COCA is committed to supporting the vitality and creativity of more than 200 artists at the heart of their work in schools, community centers, local businesses, cultural organizations, and onsite at its campus in University City.

We're so excited to kick off Pride Month with you at COCA with amazing drag performances, bingo, prizes, raffles, a costume contest, and more – all while supporting COCA's promise to our creative community.

History of Art and Drag

Drag origins can be traced back to ancient civilizations, where cross-dressing and gender-bending were prevalent in various cultural and religious practices. In ancient Greek theater, men often played female characters, as women were prohibited from theatrical performances. This tradition continued throughout history, reaching Shakespearean plays and the British pantomime tradition.

In the modern era, drag has become a popular form of entertainment and art, with drag shows and drag queens becoming a staple of the LGBTQ+ culture. It is now seen as a form of self-expression that celebrates gender diversity and challenges traditional ideas of gender norms.

Drag is a multifaceted art form that encompasses a range of skills. Drag queens and kings spend countless hours perfecting their makeup, honing their dance moves, and creating stunning outfits. Their performances often incorporate comedy, drama, and social commentary elements, showcasing their versatility as performers.

Drag Artists

FABRIELLE (She/Her | Instagram: @thefabrielle) is known as the Ariana Grand-Fae of the Midwest and is an established local drag artist and COCA alumna with her BFA in Musical Theatre from the Jeanine Dobbins Conservatory of Theatre and Dance. She hosts a multitude of drag and variety shows throughout the St. Louis area including: Fab's Fables at HandleBar, Klub Weirdo and BimboVision both at The Crack Fox, as well as Drag Show Trivia at Hidden Gem. She is a featured cohost on Mangled Mornings, Mera Mangle's YouTube recap show of RuPaul's Drag Race. She has worked at COCA for four years as a teaching artist and the Patron Services Senior Supervisor and worked across the country as a professional dancer and choreographer in regional theatres. She is elated to be a part of this event and would like to thank Lucy Gossett and Kyra Pearson for making it possible!

TIFFANY SKYLARK She/Her | Instagram: @tiff_skylark1) is a powerhouse drag artist from St. Louis, Missouri, serving high glamour and raw musical brilliance in every performance. For over ten years, this triple threat has captivated audiences with a voice rooted in gospel and classical training, polished through the brilliance of musical theatre. Her love for the stage is undeniable—she seizes your attention with a confidence you can feel in your bones. Tiffany's journey to drag royalty includes standout roles in Dreamgirls (Normandy High School, 2017), Aida (The Muny, 2016), and performances at prestigious venues like COCA (Memphis, 2016; The Color Purple, 2024). She's a "disciplined doll" and a pillar in the St. Louis drag scene, blending fierce showmanship with advocacy for the arts, self-love, and queer joy. Oh—and did we mention she plays eight instruments? Sometimes live, on stage, because why not add a little music magic to the fantasy? Tiffany Skylark doesn't just perform—she transcends, bringing richness, authenticity, and sparkle to every stage she touches. So, consider this your glitter-coated reminder: Shine bright like Tiffany—because no diamond is required."

KAPONA She/Her | Instagram: @kapona.stl) has been doing drag for almost 7 years! She is the Laotian K-pop Princess of St. Louis. She is the Drag Girl Next Door and represents Asian Excellence. You can expect cute and/or sexy looks and energetic performances! She is always down to have a good time with a bright smile on her face.

Tips: @kapona-stl (Venmo)

ZELUCY LEONE FUR (She/They/He | Instagram: @zelucy.leone.fur) is the fashion forward-but most importantly, sustainable, drag queen of STL! Holding the title of Mx. Metro Trans Umbrella Group. They have designed for ALTBALL, a fashion fundraising event benefiting Doorways. They opened for Pattie Gonia's tour, promoting environmentalism and climate change activism. You can always expect the unexpected from Zelucy Leone Fur.
